

WRITE AWAY

Are you fighting with writing?

Write Away is ELTree's asynchronous writing feedback service. It's efficient and effective.

You get valuable support with your academic, professional and exam writing but the work is done offline - saving you time!

How does it work?

You submit your writing. I read and check it, then provide clear and useful feedback for you to access when it suits you.

Written work and correspondence should be completed in a Word or Google document, clearly titled and emailed to grow@eltree.uk. A Google Drive is then created to share corrections, suggestions and comments on your work. Further writing can be uploaded to and accessed from the drive.

You help me to get the key message of my writing to shine through!

Who am I?

I'm Tree, a highly-qualified English teacher. I have worked at three UK universities and specialise in Academic English. I help professionals to write more clearly and have supported many students to success in Cambridge English exams.

ACADEMIC

Write Away: Academic English

Are you are studying in English at university but don't have time for more classes?

Do you need some targeted feedback on specific aspects of your academic writing to check in your own time?

Submit your academic written work to me. I read and review it, and then suggest improvements.

Journal articles, reports, essays, reviews, proposals, dissertations & more.

Planning, paragraphing, referencing & citation, academic style, punctuation etc.

Comments related to task/assignment criteria/genre.

Please include the title/genre/rubric/question.

Diploma - Degree - Master's Degree - PhD

Feedback style and schedule to be agreed.

Top tips takeaway.

EXAMS

Write Away: English for Exams

Are you studying for the reading and listening parts of your Cambridge English exam successfully, but need more than model answers to improve your written work?

Would you like some practical comments from an experienced teacher and marker to help boost your exam writing scores?

Complete an exam writing paper (2 tasks) and submit it to me. You will receive full and clear feedback within two weeks*.

Comments related to exam criteria & markscheme. Please include the title/genre/rubric/exam question for reference.

Included:

A written summary with exam strategy advice.

Writing exams:

Cambridge First, Advanced & Proficiency
IELTS Academic

*A priority fee may apply if your exam date is sooner than this!

PROFESSIONAL

Write Away: Professional English

Would you like your business communication to be better received?

Do you need some help with writing more effectively, but don't have a lot of time in your working day?

Submit your writing to me – I read and review it, and suggest edits.

Emails, letters, reports, minutes, summaries, proposals, social media, websites & more.

Tone, style, format, purpose, vocabulary, grammar, spelling, punctuation etc.

Comments related to the genre and purpose of your writing – with your business in mind.

FAQS

What does asynchronous mean?

Asynchronous means that the work is done offline (not together live). This is time-saving for you! As well as comments in your documents, you get a feedback summary on each piece of writing.

Will you do my writing for me?

No, sorry! Write Away is designed to support you with better writing in English. It is not a proofreading service. Rather than completely correcting and rewriting your work, I will suggest improvements and provide practical feedback, helping you to write more effectively and independently.

How do I pay?

The first payment for Write Away is made in advance via Wise or by card via Stripe. Prices are in GBP. Once an invoice has been issued and a schedule agreed, you are set up on the system. I keep a record of work. You will be asked to sign a learning agreement.

What if I change my mind?

If, within two weeks, you decide you don't want to continue, then you can receive a refund, minus a £10 admin fee and the cost of any work already completed.
